

Dr. Bierer will speak to international cooperativity and the challenges of multi-site, multi-national research in children. Dr. Bierer is currently involved in a rather large and comprehensive task force examining many of these issues, the nature of which will be described.