

Recent changes to the Food and Drug Regulations respecting the authority supporting the Special Access Program for drugs. Presentation will also include an overview of the wide range of non-marketed drugs released by the program for use in treating pediatric patients.